TODAY as we

Inspiration

be given

lace TOMORROW may

to us . . . through our Memories

YESTERDAY at Lenoir Rhyne

"Tomorrow's strength is but thoughts of Yesterday"

A Yesterday at Lenoir Rhyne . . . Remembering all the little things that counted . . . being late for eight o'clock classes and getting up Dr. Keiser's notebooks . . . coffee at the Tonk . . . Harry presiding at Student Body meetings . . . the thrill of a kick-off and the excitement after the L.R.-U.N.C. basketball game . . . playing hearts in the Gym . . . unending registration lines . . . cutting classes to make homecoming floats . . . the thrill of dance night when each frat went all out to give us a night to remember.

Today as we face Tomorrow we are inspired through our memories of Yesterday at Lenoir Rhyne . . . How . . .

we WORKED

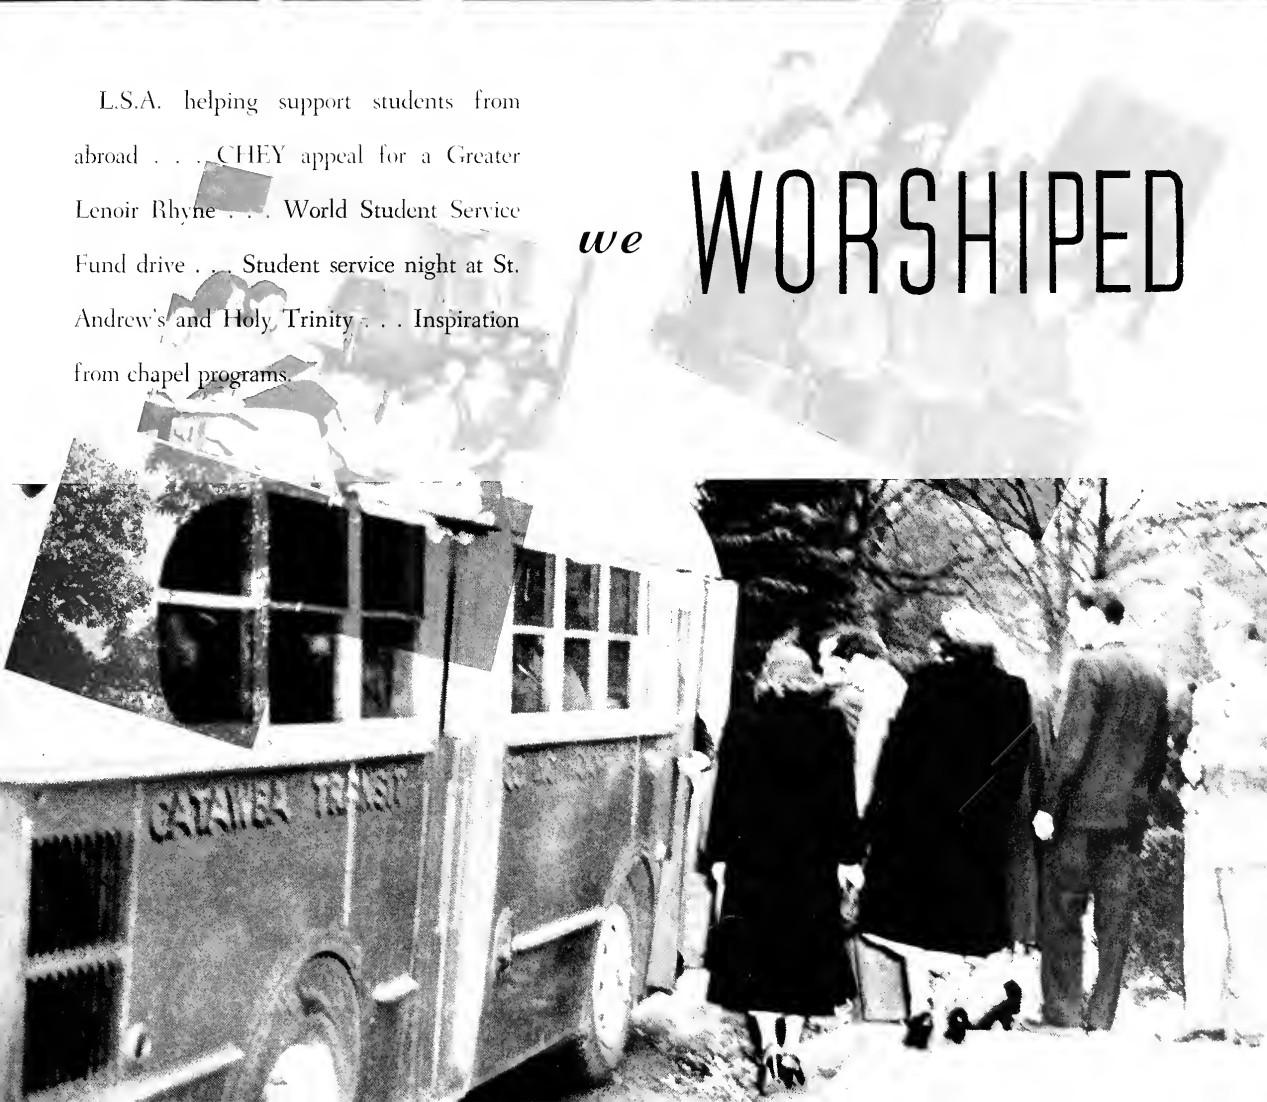

Bible charts . . . Lyerly's research themes
. . . Mrs. Brandon's maps . . . Poetry books
. . . Monday night rush in the library . . .
Last minute scramble for outside reading material . . . The quiet that settles over the dorms as exam week begins . . . The relief or dismay over report cards . . . Those long afternoon labs . . . Pianos in Annex going full blast all day . . . And, in spite of distractions, a worth-while year!

L.S.A. helping support students from abroad . . . THEY appeal for a Greater Lenoir Rhyne . . . World Student Service Fund drive . . . Student service night at St. Andrew's and Holy Trinity . . . Inspiration from chapel programs.

we WORSHIPED

we PLAYED

The Powder Bowl . . . Card games—Bridge and Canasta . . . The “Tonk” and Student Center—rush hour, nine P.M. . . . Intramural games—fun for everyone . . . The Center and Carolina . . . Football games at College Field . . . The Community Center, Hickory’s pride and scene of L. R.’s basketball tilts . . . Those out-of-town games . . . pep meetings in front of the dining hall . . . all memories we’ll never forget.

and on SPECIAL OCCASIONS...

Those special nights, music and dancing

. . . Frosh welcoming—a shirt tail parade . . .

Homecoming celebration . . . May Day and

Graduation—a fitting completion of our year to remember.

To The Kitchen Staff:

For their daily patience in humoring the whims and appetites of college students, for always being ready for the hungry mob—morning, noon, or night—rain or shine, for their assistance in preparing refreshments for various activities of groups and organizations, for sick trays, and for the “fixin’s and doin’s” for any and all Special Occasions . . .

And with a special “Thank You” to Bessie for her “L. R. Special” and her “Brown Sugar Pie A La Goodness”

We sincerely dedicate this, the 1950 HACAWA.

President's Message

Treasure this book as a volume of precious memories. Turn these pages to live again the choicest moments of college life. Find here inspiration to abound yet more and more in knowledge and understanding, in friendship and faith, in purpose and aspiration, in courage and determination, in love and service. With the same discriminating care that the contents of this volume have been selected, so choose the entries for your volume of life.

MALE CHORUS

Organized this year for those young men who cannot participate in the regular choir but who enjoy singing.

JOEL HYDER

They said beautiful things at Joel's funeral:
They told of his life
From altar boy at ten to young ministerial student at twenty.

It was good.
The ministers consoled the family and friends
With beautiful thoughts of the wonders of God
We cannot understand.

But enough has not been said:
Joel lives—he is not dead!
His death is but a challenge:—
A challenge to the greatest calling on earth—
A challenge to take up the Great Command of Jesus Christ—

A challenge to young men—not one—not two—
But to many young men
To take up the Great Command of Jesus Christ—
The call to the GOSPEL MINISTRY!

—From Joel Speaks
By Pearl Setzer Deal

IN MEMORIAM

The mighty reaper has taken his toll
Not out on a gun-kept hill,
But in these halls of Learning,
Where, when He saw that bright fire burning,
Said, "I alone can appreciate
What he talked, and learned," and Fate
Gave to him a golden organ,
Long nimble fingers, and widespread hand.
Where he shall play, and play
For Him who took him away.
Because his gift was God-given,
And God brought him back to heaven.
Think not that those fingers will cease,
They give back to God his own increase.

—Raymond Petrea, Class of '52

Since late last spring, the HACAWA staff has been hard at work. We hope that we have compiled a book that will create a memory, a stirring picture of this year at L. R.

The Editors were plagued with budget difficulties, inexperience, a February deadline, and numerous students who insisted that their picture appear on every page.

Workers who did the thousand odd jobs necessary to make the 1950 HACAWA a reality.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club gave evidence this year, that it is one of the most energetic organizations on the campus. Showing movies of the "Bear" football games, fostering more cordial intramural and intercollegiate relationships, sponsoring outings, and generally boosting school spirit have been some of its activities.

Football Season

The "Bears" had a most successful season this year. Their record of seven won and three lost is the best win-loss record in the history of the college. Under the "tutoring" of Coaches Stasavich, Hall, Ratterree, Washam and Assistant Coaches Miller and Winfree, the "Bears" showed from the beginning that they had what it takes. They took the opener from Erskine with a 7 to 0 score.

The next game was played in Greenville with a pass-happy E.C.T.C. squad. The "Bears," favored to win by possibly two touchdowns, showed a fine offense, but E.C.T.C.'s "needle-threading" passer couldn't miss. Final score—L.R. 21, E.C.T.C. 20, the difference being Captain Painter's faultless extra-point kicking.

The first showing before the home folks was a good one. The "Bears" turned in a fine performance to defeat Newberry by a score of 27 to 13.

L.R.'s Homecoming Day was a big success, and the "Bears" added a perfect climax. They showed both power and deception in a 21 to 6 triumph over a stubborn "Panther" team.

Mountain trips and opponent's homecoming games seem a jinx to the "Red and Black." Before a homecoming crowd in the "Catamount's" new stadium at Cullowhee, the "Bruins" twice "clawed" their way to within reach of the enemy goal line, only to be stopped by a combination of lady luck and an inspired W.C.T.C. team. Final score, 14 to 0.

In the "Bear's" third home appearance of the year, they rolled against Atlantic Christian. The "Bulldogs" put up a gallant fight, but the "Bruin Tide" was not to be stopped until it pushed across four tallies for a 28 to 0 score.

Lenoir Rhyne's "Bears" played what was probably their best game of the year against a strong Elon team. Particularly outstanding in this game was the brilliant line play of the "Bears." The "Bruin" forward wall smothered the "Christians'" plays or opened holes in their defense like a well-oiled machine. Result—L.R. 19, Elon 7.

"Turkey Day" is football day, and Lenoir Rhyne played host to Catawba. It was a gray, cloudy day at College Field, and the rising wind became colder by the minute as a capacity crowd watched the "Bears" lose momentum and go down before a powerful "Indian" team, 7 to 0.

Four men were selected from the "Bear" squad for the All-Conference team. Guard Frank Snyder and tackle Hanley Painter received the honor for the first time, while end Frank Little and tailback John Charles were both selected for All-Conference honors for the third straight year.

Cheerleaders

No L.R. football game would have been complete without the marching band, the high-stepping majorettes, and, most of all, our energetic, vivacious cheerleaders. We remember them most for decorating the field for every game, for their stunts which left us amused and welcomed visiting teams, for "I.A.D.O.Y.," for leading the cheers—in mud and rain and cold—for just being at every football game.

First row: Rita Richardson, Bill Frazier, Bob Parks, Jim Hudgins, Warren Danley, Bob Shaw, Virginia Shealy.

BEARS SURPRISE APPS FOR NORTH STATE TITLE

Considering their non-impressive record in regular season play, sports writers predicted that L.R.'s "Bears" would be lucky to get by the first round of tournament play at Elkin. These predictions failed to take into consideration "Bear" fighting spirit and "will to win," and the men in red and black forgot to read the papers.

The first team to feel the wrath of the "Bears" was High Point. Then it was Guilford, who the night before had defeated a powerful Catawba five. This brought Coach Emmerson's fighting five and a rangy squad of "Mountaineers," from Appalachian, together for the final game of the tournament. The "Bears" showed that their other wins were not merely luck, and they were "North State Conference Champions."

As a result of their exceptionally fine play, Bill Wells was placed on the All-Conference Team and Tony Sellari, D. W. Winstead, and Leo Kantorski were selected for the All-Tournament Team. Tony Sellari was also honored by being named top player in the North State Conference.

BASKETBALL

Our 1950 "Bear 'cage'" squad was one to be remembered. Still lacking height, the "Bears" made up for it with fighting spirit and the determination to win.

Picked by many to go undefeated in conference play, and still showing the fight which made them defending Conference Champions, Coach Brice Hall's boys exploded into the win column and stayed there for eight games. Included in this winning streak were victories over Newberry, Wofford, and a thrilling, three-overtime period, 79-78 victory over the University of North Carolina's "White Phantoms."

Under Coach Troy Washam the Bears had a successful year on the diamond, and had an excellent chance to take the title. A costly defeat at the hands of a strong Elon team, however, dampened title aspirations. Our undaunted "Bears" slammed back to finish with 9 victories to 6 defeats.

1949 BASEBALL SQUAD

Most fans remember the extra inning game with Guilford here, when "Goon" Little slid in with the winning run. Also to be remembered is the fine 1 to 0 win over Newberry, hurled by Bill Helton, and the loss to a weak Appalachian team in winter weather at Boone. High Point squeezed out a win, and the season closed with a win over Catawba.

Tennis

Springtime means tennis time, and L.R. students are becoming more tennis minded, evidenced by the constant demand for the courts behind Mauney Hall and the Annex.

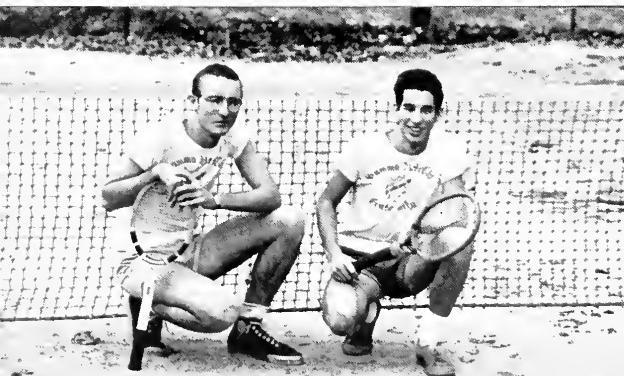

L.R.'s racket and net men came through a rough schedule in 1949 with a 1 won and 6 lost record. Great things are expected this year, however, since "Bird" Brady, John Tate, Fred Goodson and "Fuz" Rhyne are back. C. M. "Doc" Peeler is the only absent member of last year's squad.

GOODSON, RHYNE, PEELER, TATE, BRADY

INTRA

Coach Fred Emmerson's 1949 intramural program was probably the best in the history of Lenoir Rhyne. With the institution of a point system for both individual and group scoring and careful supervision of playing and scoring, new interest was aroused. Two plaques were engraved, one with the name of Rho Sigma Fraternity, the highest scoring group for the second straight year, and the other with the name of Vic Rice, representing the Eta Delta Zeta Fraternity, who nosed out Jack Phillips as individual high scorer. Each year the names of the new winners will be added to the plaques. The presentation of a trophy to the individual high scorer by the Eta Delta Zeta Fraternity will be an annual affair and should help to provide incentive for participation.

Championships went this way:

1949 Badminton—"Wa" Warlick, Rho Sigma. Ping-pong—Charles Harrill, Eta Delta Zeta. Free-throw—Armand Mando, Rho Sig-

Coach Brice Hall took up this year where Coach Emmerson left off and continued the good work. With "Bird" Brady as a much needed student assistant, Coach Hall undertook the tremendous task of organizing and supervising an intramural program. He did an excellent job and the number of students participating reached a new high. The basketball games provided the "hottest" competition, with the "Tweeders," "Delts," and "Rhos" all fielding excellent teams.

The W.A.A. creates interest in athletics and provides opportunities for participation and leadership in recreational activities. It sponsors hikes, softball, girls' basketball, and other intramural games.

Basketball is a favorite sport among the Lenoir Rhyne girls. During the past season Dot Leatherman acted as student coach, doing the work capably and efficiently. Among the outstanding forwards were Bea Owens, Virginia Shealy, and Willodene Hook. Assisting them at the guard positions were Mary Lea Workman, Sue Kiser, Bobbie Lee, and Ollie Patterson.

Competition in tennis lagged this year because of the graduation of many experienced players. It was, nevertheless, fun for many beginners who found playing on the courts a pleasant diversion from afternoon labs and classes.

Gym class is known as the place where poise as well as pains originate. Meeting two days a week, the girls practice sitting-stretches, body bends, folk dances, and techniques of individual and team sports.

Never to be forgotten are the annual "Powder Bowl" games when the girls don blue jeans and plaid shirts and take their places in the football line-up. This year the upperclassmen beat the freshmen by a score of 6-0. Bea Owens made the winning touchdown with a spectacular 82-yard run in the last quarter of the game.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council is composed of representatives from each of the three fraternities and the two societies. This group works to solve any problems that might come up between them as well as to further good will among students on the campus.

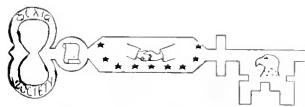

Those representing the different societies and fraternities are: Sphinx, Carol Katzung and Bea Owens; Philia, Jean Agner and Nancy Foil; Rho Sigma, Weldon Sheets and Armand Mando; Gamma Beta Chi, Harold Black and Steve Shuford; Eta Delta Zeta, Talmadge Welch and Bill Lyerly. Faculty Representative, Dean Edwin Lake Setzler.

If I would be allowed to anticipate the reactions of you, the reader of the 1950 HACAWA, to this next section of your yearbook, I would say that you plan either to omit it entirely or skip over it lightly in the hope that you'll find some enticing or laudatory autographs. If this be your intent, may I cause you to reconsider and give it a more careful study, because in this section you see not a colorless, uninteresting series of advertisements, but an index of those individuals and businesses in and around Hickory who consider your HACAWA important enough to warrant their support. In so doing they become worthy of your support, if it be nothing more than your gratitude, because in contributing to your HACAWA, they have contributed to your future enjoyment.

To you businessmen who have made possible the publication of a larger and more elaborate yearbook than perhaps any comparable school in the state, Margie, Sue, the staffs, and I extend our most sincere thanks and the hope that our appreciation will make itself felt in your tangible, as well as your intangible, assets.
